Biographical Information

Rev. Dr. Richard C. Halverson (1916-1995) was the chaplain of the United States Senate from 1981 to 1995. Dr. Halverson received a Bachelor of Science degree from Wheaton College in 1939, a Bachelor of Theology from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1942, and several honorary Doctoral degrees in the course of his career. Dr. Halverson began his ordained ministry in California, where he served as Managing Director at Forest Home Christian Conference Grounds and as a minister at various churches including First Presbyterian Church of Hollywood (1947-1956).

Dr. Halverson became an associate of the International Prayer Breakfast Movement in Washington, D.C. in 1956. He was the senior pastor of Fourth Presbyterian Church in Bethesda, Maryland from December 1958 until May 1981. He began his role as Senate Chaplain in February 1981 and served there until his retirement in March of 1995.

In addition to his pastoral roles, Halverson was the Chairman of the Board of World Vision (1966-1983) and a member of the advisory board to many more organizations. He was heavily involved in the International Prayer Breakfast Movement, also known as the "Fellowship Foundation." He also published several books and a biweekly devotional newsletter he began in 1949 called Perspective.

Scope and Content

This collection consists of 11 series. It includes correspondence, topical files, and daily senate prayers from Dr. Halverson's tenure as U.S. Senate Chaplain. It also contains his correspondence from this period (1981-1990s) regarding organizations he helped to lead. These include World Vision, the International Prayer Breakfast Movement and many others. Some of the topical files in this collection date from before 1981. His sermons, manuscripts, and personal correspondence also range in date from his ministry in California (1947) to his retirement (1995).

Administrative Information

Processing Information

This collection was donated to the Seminary Libraries by Dr. Halverson's son Richard Christian Halverson, Jr. in 1999. A preliminary inventory was drafted by Special Collections staff in 2003. The collection was processed and the finding aid was written by Kristen Nivling under the direction of Sarah Seraphin, Manuscript Librarian, from March 2008 through April 2010. The original order of these files has been maintained. The finding aid was edited by Sarah Seraphin in April of 2010.

Access

Folders containing sensitive information have been indicated in this finding aid by Special Collections staff. These files are subject to restriction. All other material may be examined by library patrons under the normal rules and conditions of Special Collections.
