Biographical Information

Edward A. Dowey was a Presbyterian theologian and educator. Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1918, Dowey’s father was a minister in several Presbyterian churches. He began his undergraduate work at Keystone College in La Plume, Pennsylvania. Although he began to study theology, philosophical questions troubled him as he lost faith in God. He finished his undergraduate work at Lafayette College, where he graduated summa cum laude in Philosophy in 1940. After hearing a speech from John A. Mackay, President of Princeton Theological Seminary, he reconsidered theological training. He entered the Seminary later that year, renewing faith after reading Karl Barth.

In 1943, the Presbyterian Church in the USA ordained him. He served for three years as a Navy Chaplain during World War II and then continued graduate studies at Columbia University and Union Theological Seminary in New York City. Under the tutelage of Emil Brunner, he completed his Doctorate of Theology at the University of Zurich in 1949 with his dissertation, The Knowledge of God in Calvin’s Theology, now an introductory cornerstone on the subject.

From 1949 to 1951, he taught at Lafayette College. From 1951 to 1954, he taught at Columbia University. From 1954-1957, he taught at McCormick Theological Seminary. Finally, in 1957, he began teaching at Princeton Theological Seminary where he stayed for more than 30 years.

Between 1958 and 1966, he was Chairman of the Special Committee of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the USA, which led the church to adopt the Confession of 1967 and later the Book of Confessions. This led Dowey to later publish on the subject in A Commentary on the Confession of 1967 and an Introduction to the Book of Confessions.

At Princeton Theological Seminary, Dowey taught several classes in theology and church history with a special focus on Calvin, Luther, Bullinger, and Zurich centered theologians. He retired from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1988. He died at the age of 85 in Princeton, New Jersey on May 5, 2003 following complications from Parkinson’s Disease.
