Biographical Information

Bernhard Word Anderson was born September 25, 1916, in Dover, Missouri to parents Arthur Lincoln Anderson, an itinerant preacher, and Grace Word Anderson. In 1936 Anderson earned a B.A. from the College of the Pacific, where he studied with James Muilenberg. From there he went on to earn a M.A. from the Pacific School or Religion in 1938 and a B.D. from the Pacific School of Religion in 1939. In 1939 he was ordained in the United Methodist Church and pastored Methodist churches in California, specifically Jamestown, Pittsburg, Sunnyvale, Millbrae, and Congregational churches in Wauregan and Central Village, Connecticut.

In 1945 Anderson earned a Ph.D. from Yale University and began a career in academia. From 1946 to 1948 he worked as an instructor in the Department of Philosophy and Religion at Colgate University. From 1948 to 1950 he was James A. Gray Associate Professor of Biblical Literature at the University of North Carolina and from 1950 to 1954 he was Joseph B. Hoyt Professor of Old Testament Interpretation at Colgate Rochester Divinity School. In 1954 Anderson began working at Drew University. He was employed as the Henry Anson Buttz Professor of Biblical Theology, a position he held until 1968. From 1954 to 1963 he was Dean of the Theological School at Drew University. In 1957 he published Understanding the Old Testament.

Anderson was deeply interested in archaeology and in 1956 he, together with George Ernest Wright, launched the Drew-McCormick Archaeological Expedition to excavate the city of Shechem. From 1963 to 1964 Anderson served as the Annual Professor at the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem. From Drew, Anderson went on to be a Professor of Old Testament Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary from 1969 to 1983 and later as an adjunct professor of Old Testament Theology at the Boston University School of Theology 1984 to 1996.

During the course of his life Anderson was awarded a variety of honorary degrees. In 1960 he was awarded an honorary D.D. from the Pacific School of Religion. In 1961 he was awarded an honorary S.T.D. from the University of the Pacific, and in 1965 he was awarded an honorary D.D. from Colgate University.
